

It is with great pleasure that I have accepted the invitation from Alexander McLean to become a Patron of the African Prisons Project.

The Project is making a most significant contribution to the wellbeing of affected people in the part of Africa it serves and it is a privilege to support it. It has already made an impressive impact and in what is a very short time. I wish to offer it all possible success.

I would also like to offer its Director, Alexander McLean, warm congratulations on his richly deserved award as UK Charity Volunteer of the Year 2006.

Boston of Faversham